

🌿 Advent ~ Tuesday, December 2 🌿

---

When I was younger, my mom would put together different Advent calendars for me and my sister. Instead of candy, my Advent calendar would have one Lego for each day and on Christmas morning, I would open the last flap on the Advent calendar and I would be able to create the car or spaceship out of Legos I had collected all through Advent.