- 6:45 p.m. Evening Class: "Sin, Evil, and Guilt"
Canon Ted Holt invites you to explore sin, evil, and guilt as realities that have affected us all ever since the mythical days of Adam and Eve and that Slippery Serpent. Weaving Biblical, theological, and psychological ways of viewing the themes of sin, evil, and guilt, he will do so in a way that will likely be quite new to you, and along the way expand your understanding of how each functions (as well as malfunctions) in your life and the lives of those around you.
- 7:30 p.m. Close of Day Worship

Thursdays during Lent

- 11:00 a.m. Holy Eucharist Rite I
- 12:15–12:45 p.m. Noontime Recital Series, Bloom Music Center
These high-achieving rising stars of the next musical generation will dazzle with their professional polish, maturity, and technical prowess. Listen to them as they ascend to the professional stage.
- February 11 Miranda Agnew, trumpet
- February 18 Grace Sheppard, guitar
- February 25 Daniel Rosenberg, baritone
- March 3 Carissa Powe, violin
- March 10 Cameron Williams, piano
- March 17 Claire Thai, harp

Special Lenten Retreat Day

- February 27 "Discover Your Purpose" with the Rev. Dr. Rob Voyle
9:30–4 Here is your opportunity to have your own personal "Day of Discovery," to look at your own future using the same Appreciative Inquiry process we used at the Parish Day of Discovery last fall. Learn how what you love to do is your spiritual fingerprint; do an Appreciative Inquiry into your own life and discover yourself at your best; discern, from you at your best doing what you love, your core God-given purpose for being. The Rev. Dr. Rob Voyle is a leader in the development and use of appreciative coaching. Rob will enhance your ability to delight in yourself, your neighbor, and God through his insightful, practical, loving, professionally grounded, appreciative, and often mischievous coaching and teaching skills. No charge; lunch included. Watch for registration information.
